SPaG Exclamation marks and Exclamation sentences

Look at the exclamation PowerPoint. Complete these speech bubbles with a short exclamation sentence to show shock, surprise or excitement. Don't forget a capital letter and an exclamation mark. Draw a character to show who is speaking.

Writing exclamation sentences. 'How...!' or 'What...!'

Two examples are shown to help you. Then either draw a picture to match the given exclamation sentence, write an exclamation sentence to match the picture and finally, do your own pictures and matching exclamation sentences.

What brightly coloured petals they are!	How delicate The butterfly's wings are!	What a big smile you have, Grandma!

How wonderful it is to see you all!	What a huge ice cream that is!
